

MUMU Website Optimization & Migration Landing Page Handoff

Objective

Transform the current website into a high-conviction meme brand site, migration conversion funnel, investor credibility deck replacement, community onboarding machine, and PumpFun migration hub.

The site should feel:

- Bigger
- More premium
- More emotionally powerful
- More “bull market”
- Less generic memecoin
- Less template-like

Priority Changes

1. Remove all MICHY references throughout the entire codebase, metadata, SEO tags, imagery, and branding.

2. Reposition the homepage narrative around:
“The official bull market movement of Solana.”

4. Create a dedicated /migration page:

- Timeline
- Migration flow
- FAQ
- Security warnings

5. Add investor/partner positioning:

- Sponsorship credibility
- Historical highs
- Native Solana community
- Existing brand awareness

Visual Direction

The site should feel:

- Bullish
- Aggressive
- High-energy
- Premium
- Financially optimistic

Design inspiration:

- Hyperliquid
- Premium fintech
- Trading terminals
- Nike campaign energy
- Apple spacing systems

Avoid:

- Generic memecoin layouts
- Cute/pastel meme aesthetics
- Low-effort pump visuals

Homepage Structure

1. Hero Section
2. Migration CTA
3. Why MUMU
4. Market Narrative
5. Community Proof
6. Migration Explanation
7. Live Stats
8. Partnerships
9. Meme Wall
10. FAQ
11. Footer/Socials

Migration Page Requirements

Route: /migration

Required sections:

- Timeline
- Migration walkthrough
- Security warnings
- FAQ
- Tutorial videos
- Live metrics
- Countdown timer
- Official links

Community & Conversion

Add:

- Sticky CTA buttons
- Floating migrate button
- Telegram/X CTA

- Meme wall
- Community clips
- Countdown timers
- Real-time migration stats
- Buy/sell feeds

SEO & Performance

SEO:

- Replace all metadata with MUMU branding
- OpenGraph optimization
- Twitter card optimization
- Schema markup

Performance:

- Image compression
- Lazy loading
- JS optimization
- 90+ Lighthouse mobile target

Final Positioning

The website should stop feeling like:

“A token website.”

And start feeling like:

“The official bull market movement of Solana.”

The emotional response should be:

“This feels like a major crypto brand entering a new cycle.”
